Audience routes & wallet recovery

The original audience map distinguishes newcomers, holders and governors. Access flows include wallet installation, network switching and recovery. My work connects journeys and architecture with a shared visual and component system.

Comparison, checkout & operational states

Led design across onboarding and node workflows. Node families share specifications, fees and staking fields; checkout exposes wallet and manual-payment choices. The dashboard distinguishes activation, approval and operating states.

Collaboration & responsive product UI

Led interface restyling and new feature design. The original comparison retains familiar navigation while separating purpose, participants, tasks and decisions. The wider work includes semantic UI states and desktop/mobile flows.
